FAMILY EDUCATION CENTER SERVICES

Severely troubled youth need professional intervention in order to function well at home, at school, with friends, and with the community.

We help them attain:

- Emotional stability
- Self-esteem
- Positive coping skills
- Increased attention span
- Academic improvement
- Fewer negative behaviors

Some children and adolescents within the school setting require intensive intervention to stabilize and improve their functioning so learning can occur. Programs with the academic component as well as behavioral intervention are:

- Grade School Intensive Treatment Program, grades K - 5
1/2 day academic, 1/2 day therapeutic treatment
- Middle School Intensive Treatment Program, grades 6 - 8
1/2 day academic, 1/2 day therapeutic treatment
- Homebound Alternative Program

We provide services focusing on behavioral intervention, offering proven strategies in a structured, nurturing, and positive setting:

- Day Treatment Programs
- CANI Headstart, behavioral treatment focus
- Summer Programs, 1/2 day
- Support for Parents

Group-focused and interactive treatment is directed by each child's individual treatment plan. The therapeutic environment provides the structure for children and youth to develop understanding, assimilate healthy new behaviors, increase self-confidence, and gain social skills.

 Programs offering the academic component are offered in collaboration with Fort Wayne Community Schools.*
